- The story of creation in modern hieroglyphs
- Creative approach to the bible

The author Juli Gudehus translated the biblical story of creation into signs from daily life: logos, pictograms, punctuation marks. Even people who stay well clear of the bible will be amazed by this old text in modern hieroglyphs. 25 years after its first publication it is finally back, lovingly equipped, gently updated and an eye-catcher of the special kind.

About the author

Juli Gudehus lives and works in Berlin. She is a graphic designer, writes, consults and holds lectures. Her speciality is the particular.
