- Presentation of previously unseen, spectacular pictures
- With articles by authors such as Verena Kast and Ingrid Riedel

The picture archive of the C. G. Jung Institute Zurich contains treasures that few people have seen up to now: More than 4000 original images, drawings and painted pictures by C. G. Jung's patients, dated from 1917 to about 1950. Many of these images have an entirely extraordinary, emotional and artistic expressive power and some are reminiscent of C. G. Jung's pictures in the Red Book.

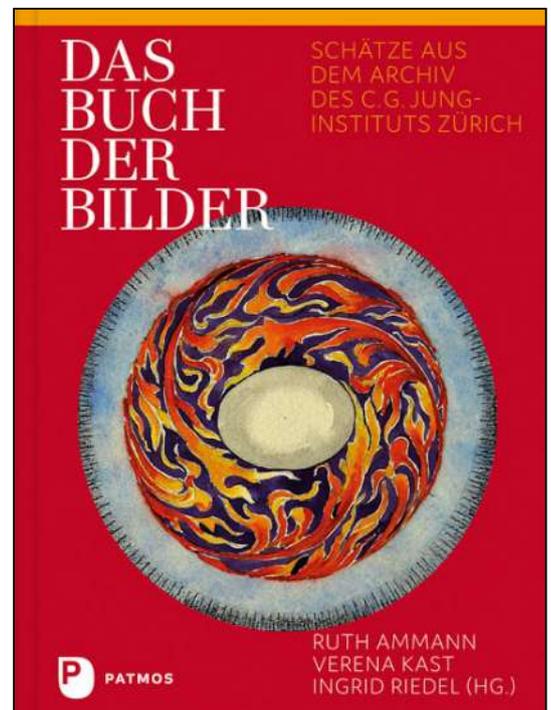

In this large-format, elaborately designed book of images, the most beautiful pictures are now finally accessible to a larger circle of people. Explanatory texts by renowned experts – including Verena Kast and Ingrid Riedel – provide help in understanding the most important picture series. This book opens the doors to the hidden picture treasures at the C. G. Jung Institute Zurich.

About the authors

Ruth Ammann, curator of the C. G. Jung Institute Zurich's Archive, qualified architect, Jungian psychoanalyst and sandplay therapist, is training analyst and lecturer at the C.G. Jung Institute in Zurich and was the President of the International Society of Sandplay Therapy.

Verena Kast is a former Professor of Psychology at the University of Zurich, Switzerland. Today she is a lecturer and teaching analyst at the C. G.
