

VERLAGSGRUPPE PATMOS

The publishing group that captures the spirit of life

PATMOS
ESCHBACH
GRÜNEWALD
THORBECKE
SCHWABEN
VER SACRUM

Niklaus Brantschen

»I Didn't Swear Enough«

The Zen master and Jesuit in a conversation with Ursula Eichenberger

ISBN: 978-3-8436-1078-0

Patmos Verlag

Hardcover with book ribbon

128 pages

Format 13 x 21 cm

EUR 16

- Eight decades - eight stages in life - eight tasks
- Insights into the spiritual teacher's life

»We chose eight places, each of which represents a period of ten years in Niklaus Brantschen's life of more than eighty years. This is where we took walks and hikes between autumn 2016 and winter 2017. The return to formative sites and walking the familiar paths allowed memories to come to life, create a connection with bygone times and brought the smells, sounds and encounters into the present.« The conversations between Niklaus Brantschen and Ursula Eichenberger on the road, as well as with his companions, are collected in this book: These are talks about this and that, God, the world and, above all, Niklaus Brantschen's life and thoughts that have accompanied him on the path up to now. This circumspect book is full of vital viewpoints, insights and outlooks. Meticulously designed with colour pictures by the photo artist Jakob Thür SJ.

About the author

Fr. Niklaus Brantschen SJ, born in 1937, is a Swiss Jesuit and Zen master. He is founder of the Lassalle-Institute for Zen – Ethics – Leadership within the Lassalle-House.

Contact:

Verlagsgruppe Patmos der Schwabenverlag AG

Luisa Lehnerer, Foreign Rights Departement

t: +49 711 4406 148

f: +49 711 4406 177

lizenzen@verlagsgruppe-patmos.de

www.verlagsgruppe-patmos.de