- Wise fairy tale
- Illustrated with much attention to the details

What is the secret of the special hat that the basket maker's wife wears every day? The couple from the hills seems to be so different from the other people in the small town. They are always in a good mood, never really complain and seem happy. There must be magic involved here. Or a magical secret...

About the author

Eva Mutscher has a craft business together with her husband. She loves to give the readers of her fairytales and stories a new point of view.
