- The popular Christmas tales by Andrea Schwarz in a new edition
- With original illustrations by Anna-Katharina Stahl
- Christmas tales to read and give to others

What happens when Angel Max is so late that he misses the birth of Baby Jesus? When the real Santa Claus works for a Santa Claus service? When Christmas cookies are invented in heaven? The Christmas tales by Andrea Schwarz are cheerful and sassy, touching and amusing, funny and profound.

About the author

Andrea Schwarz is trained industrial management assistant and social worker and active in Catholic community work. She lives in Emsland and supports the voluntary projects of the Mariannahiller Sisters in South Africa. Andrea Schwarz is one of the most widely read Christian writers of our time.
